Heartbreak Productions Poetry Competition

To celebrate the launch of Heartbreak Productions' 2020 summer tour of David Walliams' Mr Stink, we'd like to invite primary school children across the UK to join our national poetry competition and be in with the chance of winning a prize package*.

Heartbreak's special guest judge, Dr Sabrina Cohen-Hatton, will be selecting the winning poem from each category. Dr Cohen-Hatton has experienced homelessness herself as a young person, and has gone on to a successful career as a fire-fighter, author, and psychologist.

To enter, ask the children to write a poem in the style of their choice, up to 800 characters, around the topic of homelessness. This could be written based on a personal experience with the issue, how they feel about homelessness or what/how they could help to change the issue.

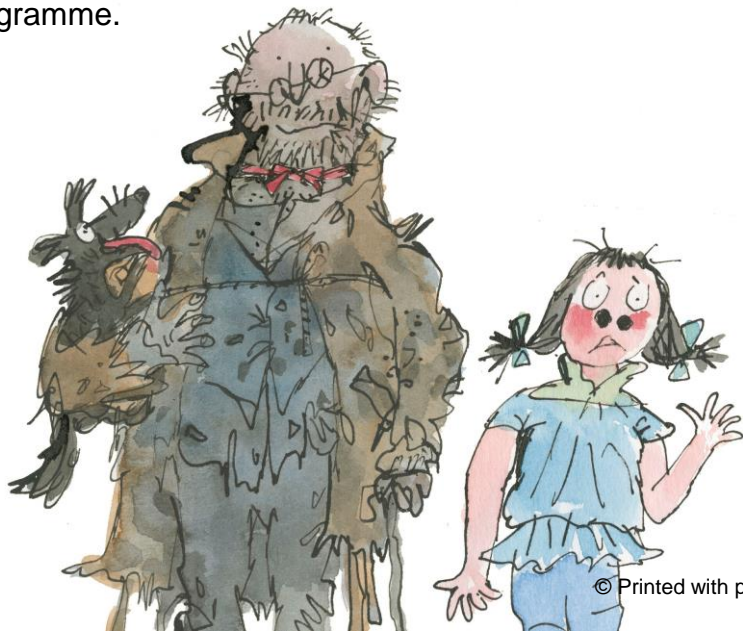

There are two competitions and prizes up for grabs! These are:

'Poetry Competition for 5 - 8 year olds'

'Poetry Competition for 9 - 11 year olds'

Entries must be made by February 24th by postal submission (Heartbreak Productions, North Hall, Leamington Spa, CV31 3SY) via our website (www.heartbreakproductions.co.uk/poetry-competition) or via email (info@heartbreakproductions.co.uk)

*Prize package includes a £100 book token for the winner, £300 worth of book tokens for the school, a signed copy of The Beast of Buckingham Palace, a family ticket to a performance of Mr Stink by Heartbreak Productions during the summer 2020 season and the winning poem printed in the tour programme.
