VE DAY YAY!

I love VE day.

It makes my sadness go away.

The day is joyful in every way

I love VE Day, VE Day YAY!

The sun is out

The children are bright

VE day is fun,

Fun till the night

The food was amazing

At nighttime I was gazing

At the beautiful starry sky

Wonderful, terrific

I don't know how to describe it?

The day was so fun

we ate lots of jam buns

I will always remember, so here I say

"I am wishing you all a happy VE Day"

VE Day

Today's VE day

We feel opposite feelings

Happy and sad

Hungry and relieved

We are sad because we lost our homes

Happy because the war is over

Street parties sweet food lots of supplies

My family has been reunited

Where are we going to live

Lots of questions to answer

We are happy because we are safe now

No need to worry now

My Diary

There was once a happy, calm place until Germans! The Germans were vicious they bombed and bombed until destruction came. All the food was gone then out of nowhere the army came even more vicious than the Germans. When it was night dozens of people were evacuating hoping they could live but I was concerned if they had enough space so I rushed onto the last available space just in time. While we were moving we stopped since the German tanks were coming so we waited for 5 minutes. It was a cold bloody night when we arrived there was food, water and blankets. Jets came soaring down attack in Germans like eagles. Years later the war was over we won and I got to ~~meet~~ meet my parents again.

Tuesday 8th May 1945

Dear diary,

It's been the most wonderful of days. The war has ended and we all had a great party. There were colourful flags flying everywhere, and someone in our street found some Union Jack bunting and it was put up for the first time in six years.

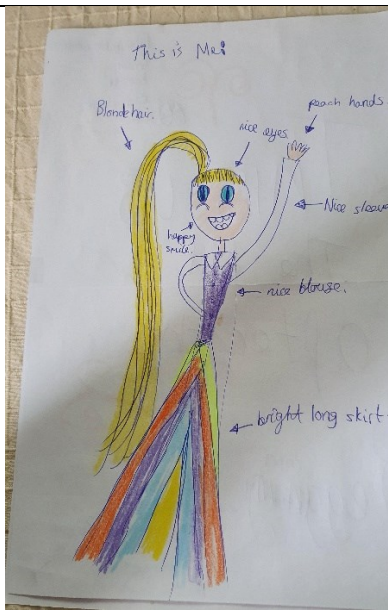

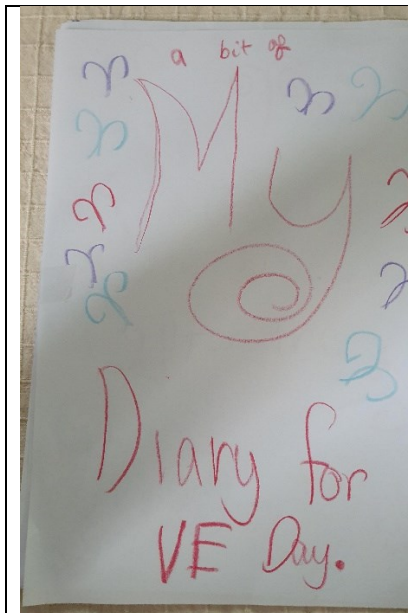

My family listened to the wireless at three o'clock to hear Mr. Churchill's speech. He told us that the war in Europe had ended and we all screamed in delight. My mother was jumping about like a lamb in our front room and then she started to cry, because father would see us again. I felt so happy I could burst. We all hugged each other and then looked out of the window and our neighbours were running up and down the street, waving their arms like mad. Then we hugged the table outside, along with the rest of the street and we made lots of scrumptious jam sandwiches for everyone to share.

Everyone brought something different and it turned into a massive party. Mrs Jackson brought a Victoria sponge cake that melted in our mouths. Afterwards, we all sang songs happily and very loudly together until dusk. We were exhausted but looking forward to tomorrow, our first day of peace.

Thursday 07th May Diary Entry 08th May 1945

Dear Louise,
I am very sorry that I am looking and writing into your pages again, for the billions of hand-aching times, but I am afraid I just cannot wait! So, here we are, my family, in the kitchen, that not one of us can possibly forget. It's our old home, back from hell. Dad is happy. I am so glad and pleased that relatives and friends come back alive, and that someone is safe. I can hardly believe now when Mum comes talking in tears in her apron, and I can't didn't exactly SAY that. Dad has only recently to get back, only the science boy book or killed, but someone is safe! Not only that, but she said someone was OK, and that Britain had won the war! Dad said a bit I will read it all now. I've gone and finished it... I have in a moment now we are! This is my diary, and I am going to be happy again possibly too, and PLEASE keep your feet on all this news, but NOW the war! I am safe, the only obstacle I really want, and I is to get past the army without being held up! I see just by the long train of people about to board. The army, I am alright that could all change in seconds. He was in a bit of a dip here, Germanes, business anyone could come without being seen! These evenings workless it spent. Back as you see, I can, Dad!
So that was the later part of it, I have spent enough time now about what that was, let's talk about... well, there's no much to talk, I couldn't possibly know where to begin. I should begin at the and what it was named of the great victory... But enough of I will start when you are all looking! So, back to the kitchen. I am now with everyone! Dad, uncle Tom, Mum, Gladys (my cat), I have my mother, my sister, Debbie, Dick, Louise, Alan, Miss, Corrie, Annie, Vania, Nan, Sister, Steve, My, Grand, Marion, I have told you already! Every family, every friend, every cousin, every one knows how to be old, very, well, I think, how old are you still? at that party, so I, my family, everyone, I should say, I have reasons to list. This can't, I can't, make chocolate, bread, butter, but the chocolate (and) my, my, cakes, bread, butter, but milk, squash, vegetables, I have, I have, I have, I have, I have,
I think I actually used up all my resources, though it is...

Special occasion... I could not go on and on about this and that, and on being to buy, what I am going to carry along to the party, but of that! I am going to go to the town night, designing as soon as that don't know what that is, that "What does one say, getting up "But we have had the girls, or no wait, from the kitchen to come, so we are, but the... I don't know. Me and Mum and Dad and...
I am sitting here, but only... I am just... I don't know.
So, let's see at the time, when I... I don't know, Dad, can I you, something, Mum, smile, and... I don't know, Dad, can I who has always been a... I don't know, Dad, can I Then I saw that I was writing too much, but I don't know as I don't know, I was writing too much, but I don't know cut her of short, well, you see, Mum, you see, Mum, you see, of others, as they have come to see that it is called.

VE Day!!! Huray!!!

This is a great celebration, Louise, that I would like to share with This is the party I had, when I had to mark my place!

If you are thinking "How that is a lot to say and NEE!" Well, it possibly my about the party that I decided, now wear to wear, can give to by some thing else! I need...

and...
P...
A...
P...
S...
S...
E...
R...

even though I but of some paper, I help that... Louise, I me or is this the best day my life? I mean, I I ate at the party, I that, so, back to the general, yes, it is as the too party, they there were ones like:

(VE day) Victory for England! I was used to looking at a new (hand). I just asked "NEA" This I have a party at my house, today... I just asked "NEA" as when I questioned her on how long ago he had on, he said I had age actually... he does make me laugh sometimes, Louise! You must spoke about it, but when I finally saw him at the table, I felt that all the joy had slipped from inside me. I have someone, as before, he and he had the same smile, "Judge Small," the oldest man, "I in the whole world, because if you ask me, there is a picture of me"

Maybe she's looking, right? I would expect all over her eyes, as her of some of it, and she's making happy sounds about father and "judging" and here she is, in all for glory, but today she merely with me... And she is:

looks different, right? More hair, darker hair, skirt and blouse hipshot. Found her next eyes, no high heels, no face, no party dress! And when she spoke, she sounded like a total dy person! She smiled, looked me in my Tom pats, and said She wasn't the same... Anyway, let me... I went back to shed and EVERYONE was waving goodbye, and I said out why I was feeling so happy today... I sudden it was my birthday, tomorrow! I smiled only for the kitchen, by the table, but my face did it from the words of Mum and Dad
"It's not! Tomorrow!" It was Dad speaking, but I could hear? too... Oh yes, Mum, Louise, I could talk! The other... I really I pulled up the table with a knife, and then realized what it was. It local, better. In the hour, and I guessed he was making a chair
All Right, All Right! My, come!

There was, as I came out of the kitchen, I saw her! The local B. H. know the old, but now, but who could say that? I don't know, I questioned, she made me, I could say, but I don't know, I don't know, Here, did it, the party, the party, the party, I don't know, I don't know, After about 2 1/2 hours, in the kitchen, I don't know, I don't know,
The house, but a nice thing, the party, I don't know, I don't know, Mum and Dad and Mum, but I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, and everything. This was some old house, and I don't know, I don't know, Mum, Mum!

Yours,
from Liana

I am hope for the future,

I am Joy at being reunited with family,

I am sadness because some of people's family have been lost,

I am relief for at end of conflict,

I am excitement of the opportunities ahead,

I am determined that we are prepared if this Happens again,
